

SECOND RESILIENCE WORKSHOP

Multi-stakeholder event: SURVIVE CANCER WITH A STRONG HEART

Date: June 19th 2026

Event venue: Vienna, Austria G1 room

14:00-14:20- Opening remarks

Borja Ibanez (welcome on behalf of the consortium and brief summary about RESILIENCE status)

Teresa López-Fernández (welcome on behalf of the ESC CardioOncology congress and brief description of the council)

Frans Weidinger (welcome from the city of Vienna)

14:20-15:15 Session 1. Cardiovascular toxicity in onco-hematology trials

Moderators:

Daniela Cardinale – European Institute of Oncology (IEO), Milan, Italy

Peter Kamper – Aarhus University Hospital, Aarhus, Denmark

1.Hematologist perspective: what is the standard in cardiotoxicity stratification? Is it enough?

Vincent Camus, Centre Henri Becquerel, Rouen, France

2.Cardiologist perspective. What is needed?

Maria Sol Andrés, Royal Brompton, London.

3.Regulator perspective

Antonio Gómez, EMA

4. Patient perspective

Antonio Navarro Jarava (Spain)

5. Discussion

15:25-16:25 Session 2. Role of imaging in Cardio-Oncology Trials: Aligning Investigators, Industry, and Patient Interests

Moderator:

Beatriz Beltrán – Madrid, Spain

Antonio Ferreira – Hospital Santa Cruz, ULSLO, Lisbon, Portugal

1. Industry perspective

Ioannis Panagiotelis – Netherlands

2. Trialist perspective: the RESILIENCE experience

Speaker(s): Malte Kelm – University Hospital Düsseldorf, Germany

3. Low- and middle-income countries perspective

Andrés José Daniele – Institute of Oncology Ángel H. Roffo, Buenos Aires, Argentina

4. Patient perspective – European level

Raquel Garcia (Spanish Cancer Organization)

5. Discussion

16:35-17:35 Session 3. Mental Health across the CardioOncology process

Riccardo Asteggiano – Turin, Italy

Maria Gomes-Silva – Instituto Português de Oncologia de Lisboa, Portugal

1. 2025 ESC consensus document on mental health and CVD

Sebastian Szmit – Medical Centre of Postgraduate Education, Warsaw, Poland

2. Patient-reported outcomes in cardiology

Arjun Kumar Ghosh – Barts Heart Centre, London, United Kingdom

3. The patient perspective

David Requena Martinez (Spain)

4. Discussion

17.45: Farewell

PARTNERS

